

DURING THE JESUS
PEOPLE REVIVAL,
THOUSANDS OF YOUNG
PEOPLE WERE SWEEPED
INTO THE KINGDOM
OF GOD.

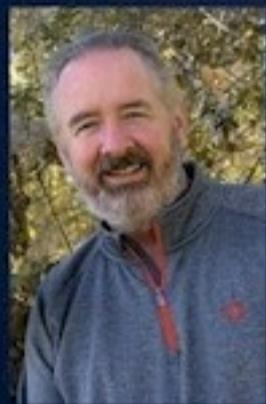

The youth of America had turned their backs on society in a vain search for truth and meaning. When they found it in Jesus Christ and were profoundly changed, they became not just ordinary Christians, but disciples.

Experience the eyewitness account of the powerful work of the Holy Spirit in the late 60s and 70s through the lens of individuals who became a family called Gospel Outreach.

Starting in northern California, this group of young, dynamic Christians established discipleship centers and churches all over the U.S., Europe, Latin America and beyond.

“It was a pleasure to be reminded of my first love. I thought about how we need that same revival now. Then I realized revival starts with me.”
Sherri D.

“Marc Allan hits this out of the park...This will be a springboard for a new generation to pray for revival to break out again.” Desi L.

After two years of college, Marc Allan volunteered for the draft, and was stationed in West Berlin. Life as a hippie beckoned following his discharge. He became a Christian through the Gospel Outreach ministry in northern California in 1973. He and his wife Linda were missionaries in Germany from 1976 to 1989. The couple has three grown children and live and work in Seattle where Marc is a businessman. Always a traveler, he enjoys road trips, and has visited countries on six continents. They continue to be active in their church and in taking the gospel, “into all the world.”

Contact Marc at marcsallan5858@live.com.

REDEMPTION PRESS

Cover design by Brittany Osborn

Religion/Christian Ministry/Discipleship

REL 023000