

*And When You Have Done All To Stand, STAND Firm

It is NOT the critic who counts, NOT the man who points out how the strong man stumbled or where the doer of deeds could have done better.

The credit belongs to the man who is actually IN the arena; whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short; who fights and falls and rises to fight again and again.

It is to HE who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement; and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly.

His place shall NEVER be with those cold and timid souls, who know neither victory nor defeat.

Theodore Roosevelt
